* CALL TO CONVENTION

LWVBA Convention will be on Saturday, May 29 at the Castro Valley Public Library (3600 Norbridge Ave., Castro Valley). Cost: $10 each (includes bagels, muffins, etc.). Please send reservations and checks to Miriam Keller, 255 Segovia Place, Fremont, CA 94539, by May 21.

From the Castro Valley BART, walk east (turn right) on Norbridge one block thru the parking lot until you get to Redwood Road. There is a light there. Cross Redwood, staying on Norbridge. The library is one block down Norbridge and on the left.

Our Keynote Speaker will be Lisa Fasano, Communications Director, Bay Area Air Quality Management District. We will adopt positions and priorities for 2010-2012, elect officers and hear reports from local Leagues.

Local League Presidents should be prepared to share three favorite or most successful projects (two minutes or less).

Please open the attached Convention Kit for details and to determine how many delegates can represent your League.

* NEWS OF LOCAL MEETINGS

Things are beginning to warm up on a number of issues in the Bay Area:

May 4th, League of Women Voters of Diablo Valley is having a program titled: Failure to Govern - Options for Governmental Reform.

May 27th League of Women Voters of South San Mateo is having a Pros and Cons discussion over the DMB Cargill project in Redwood City.

May 29th, our Convention!

Please note the two planned pros and cons for the 2010 Water Bond:

June 28th, the Bay Area Water Forum will hold a Pros and Cons on the 2010 California Water Bond on the ballot in November.

September 13th, there will be a Special Natural Resources/Water Committee meeting on the Pros and Cons of the 2010 California Water Bond to be held at EBMUD.

For more information on any of the above events, please check the calendar on our web site at www.lwvbayarea.org
