GRAY WATER UPDATE

Last spring the Bay Area League sent out information about gray water, indicating that a new state law would take effect in 2011. We suggested that local Leagues might examine the gray water situation in their cities so as to get a picture of the situation in the region. Things have changed and speeded up. The new state law was passed two years early! For details see the lead story in the Bay Area Monitor, August/September issue (<http://www.bayareamonitor.org/>). It no longer seems desirable to gather information on the gray water situation across the Bay Area, therefore we will not be making any requests of local Leagues.

We have tried to update the LWVBA Voter mailing list. It is sent to Presidents, Voter Editors, and LWVBA Representatives. It is our hope that you will share dates and ideas with other members of your League.
